

State of Housing in the Richmond Region 2025

January 23, 2025, 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM (EST)

About the State of Housing

This is the Richmond region's premier housing event, designed to help the community better understand regional trends, successes, and future priorities. The event provides a critical understanding of the region's housing landscape by highlighting successes, addressing industry trends, and announcing housing priorities and action items for the year to come. The State of Housing brings together attendees from various sectors, including government officials, developers, nonprofit housing providers, philanthropy, community members, and business leaders.

Keynote Speaker

This event will feature keynote speaker Keeanga-Yamatta Taylor, the author of Race for Profit.

Reception

After the conclusion of the event, attendees are welcome to join us for a networking cocktail reception and to get signed copies of our keynote speaker's book.

Time

Check-in for the event will begin at 3:30PM. The program begins at 4PM and a cocktail reception will follow.

Location

Virginia Museum of History and Culture

Parking is available in the museum parking lot ($5) or street parking.

View Event

Contact Information

Name: Partnership for Housing Afford

Phone: (804) 422-5057

Email: jburton@pharva.com