

The CVTA strives to increase public accessibility of meetings for the Authority and its subcommittees. Information on how to engage is contained below.

Public Participation

Members of the public are invited to participate in public meetings of the Central Virginia Transportation Authority (CVTA) and its respective committees. The following are ways members of the public can participate in and follow the business of the CVTA:

1. Be an Observer: Anyone wishing to participate as an observer of a public meeting may do so. Members of the public may observe the meeting via YouTube Live Streaming on the PlanRVA YouTube channel by clicking on the following link: PlanRVA YouTube Channel. Please be aware comments shared on the YouTube channel, while monitored, will not be addressed or reviewed in real time.
2. Share Your Opinion and Ask Questions: Anyone wishing to submit general comments or questions prior to meetings of the CVTA may do so via email at CVTA@PlanRVA.org. All written comments received by 3 p.m. the business day preceding the meeting will be provided to members of the public body within a reasonable time period and included in the administrative record.

Special instructions for submitting comments on the FY2021 CVTA Administrative and Operating Expense Budget Draft during the public hearing scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Friday, November 4th:

The meeting will be held virtually. Anyone wishing to submit comments during the public hearing may do so by joining the Zoom Video Webinar and submitting questions via the Q&A dialog box. The link to the Zoom Video Webinar will be available on the PlanRVA website ahead of the meeting.

3. Inclusive Agenda: All comments and questions submitted via email during or after the meeting will be reviewed following the meeting and to the extent practical, responses may be provided or posted on the PlanRVA website.
